6) Copy Editing

Price: £299 up to 100,000 words

We will help you refine and polish your book before you publish. With our copy editing service, one of our editors will review your manuscript and make corrections for grammar, spelling, punctuation, and any typos present in the text.

In addition, an editor will also provide an editorial email commenting on the changes made in the manuscript with advice on how to improve your writing.

7) Line Editing

Price: £399 up to 100,000 words

A high-quality, marketable book must exemplify good writing.

The editor will review and edit for consistency in:

- Grammar
- Spelling
- Punctuation

In addition the editor will review your manuscript and provide recommendations on elements such as:

- Structure
- Plot flow
- Characterization
- Tone

Layout & Design (Paperback)

8) Basic Interior (suitable for fiction books)

Price: £199.00

Professional design and typeset of interior.

Our Basic Interior service:

- Ensures your book's content is designed according to professional standards.
- Uses standard, reader-friendly fonts for typesetting.
- Includes the placement of one author photo and a brief author biography, if required

9) Custom Interior (suitable for non-fiction and books with illustrations, photos and diagrams)

Price: £399

Provides a custom designed interior that reflects your book's genre and includes images, tables etc.

The Custom Interior Service

- Allows formatting of specialized elements, such as footnotes, endnotes, lists, quotations, and excerpted text.
- Incorporates unique design elements to chapters and sections.
- Includes the placement of up to 10 author-supplied interior images.
- Enhances your text with reader-friendly fonts appropriate to the genre.

10) Complete Editing Package: Fiction

Price: £499.00 up to 100,000 words

A professionally produced book of high quality may require multiple stages of editing. The first stage of editing will provide a line edit that corrects typos and ensures consistency in:

- Grammar
- Punctuation
- Spelling

The second stage of editing addresses such issues as:

- Structure
- Plot flow
- Characterization
- Tone

Each round of editing will include an editorial email explaining the suggested changes made in the manuscript.

(For Complete Editing Package for non-fiction books, please contact us.)

11) Standard Paperback Cover Design

Price: £199

This service is for authors with a clear idea of the cover design they have in mind but who may need assistance in getting their files to meet printers' submission requirements. If you prefer to leave the design and formatting of your book cover to us, please see Advanced Cover below.

If you have designed and prepared your own jacket for your paperback book in a suitable format such as a .jpg, .png, .gif, .tif, .bmp, .psd or .indd, we will convert it to a press quality, print-ready file, ensuring your file meets standard printers' submission requirements.

IMPORTANT: We cannot complete your cover until we have your book's final page count and know your preference for trim size as the number of pages determines your book's spine width.

(See Trim Sizes below)

12) Advanced Cover Design

Price: £299.00

A professionally designed book cover according to your book's individual style and content. This service includes as many front and back cover images as required from a vast range of stock photos, or formatting and layout of photos supplied by the author, with complementary background colours, fonts and typography.

Advanced Cover Premier Features

- Phone or email consultation with us to discuss and collaborate on your vision and ideas for your book cover
- Use of stock images as required from Shutterstock.com selected by you or by our experienced designers from the vast image collection (image manipulation and formatting also included)
- Unique, stylized fonts and themes
- Three stages of revisions to your selected cover design
- Feedback and recommendations directly from the designer
- Custom placement of your synopsis, author photo and barcode on the back cover, plus cover formatting, spine lettering and sizing made to your book's specific trim size (this is usually done in conjunction with our Interior Design/ Layout and Editing packages for final production of a complete book)

You'll consult directly with the professional book cover designer who will capture your input and facilitate any requested changes. Throughout the design process, you'll be able to collaborate, provide feedback and make important decisions about your book cover's look and feel.

IMPORTANT: We cannot complete your cover until we have your book's final page count and know your preference for trim size as the number of pages determines your book's spine width.

Trim sizes

We recommend a trim size of 5.06 inches by 7.81 inches (129 x 198 millimetres), as this is a standard paperback size. Other trim sizes are available, eg. 4.72 x 7.48 inches (120 x 190 mm), 5x7 inches (127 x 178 mm), 5 x 8 inches (127 x 203 mm), 5.25 x 8 inches (133 x 203 mm), 5.5 x 8.5 inches (140 x 216 mm), 5.83 x 8.27 inches (148 x 210 mm), 6 x 9 inches (152 x 229 mm).
